

prominent Theorist

Dr. Najaf Lakzaee

Biography ▾

Najaf Lakzaee was born in 1970 in Sistan and Baluchestan Province. He studied at the university and at the same time at Qom seminary from 1982 to 2004 and succeeded in completing his university education in the field of political sciences and got the degrees of B.A, M.A and PhD. Dr. Najaf Lakzaee is currently a professor in the Department of Political Science at Baqir al-Olum University (PBUH), the President of Islamic Sciences and Culture Academy and Research Deputy of the Islamic Propaganda Office Of Qom Seminary.

His research interests are the political thought of Islam, the political thought of Imam Khomeini, the security school of Islam and the political issues of Iran. He has been awarded the twenty-fifth edition of the Book of the Year, the Book of the Year of the Seminary (twice), the Book of the Year of Religion Researchers and the Biennial Research on Islamic State.

"Imam Khomeini's Political Thought"; " An Introduction to Quranic Documents of Imam Khomeini's Political Philosophy"; "The Evolution of Imam Khomeini's Political Thought" " Political thought of Mulla Sadra"; "Political thought of Muhaqiq Sabzewari"; "Socio-political changes of contemporary Iran"; "The cultural and political history of contemporary Iran"; "Religious Politics and Sultanate Order: With an Emphasis on Shiite Ulama's Political Thought in the Safavid Era."; "The Holy Prophet's conduct, from the Jahiliyyah (ignorance) community to the Islamic community" and ... are of the published works of Dr. Lakzaee. Publishing numerous articles in scientific journals, especially in the field of security, is another of his activities.

