

Top Scientific Journal in Academics section

International Bi-Quarterly Journal of Human Rights

The International Bi-Quarterly Journal of Human Rights was founded in 2006. It covers a wide range of topics in human rights, and publishes not only original research papers, but also articles reflecting original and fresh views (Perspective Opinion and Commentary) as well as book/Article Reviews. This journal is the first scientific and fully specialized journal in Iran that started its operation in 2006 and set to publish selected scientific works in order to explain the theoretical foundations of human rights and accomplish the goals of the Center for Human Rights Studies and to expand principled research and theoretical foundations of human rights. In more than ten years of activity, this semi- annual journal has been introduced as a research resource in the related areas and continued its activities.

. This journal has been published since 2006 by MU Center for Human Rights Studies in Iran. It is an international journal with anonymous (closed) refereeing system that is published for free to promote human rights concepts in Iran and reflects the existing views, also for easy access. It publishes articles free of cost. All costs related to the compilation, preparation and publication of articles are covered by MU Center for Human Rights Studies. The journal is published in both print and digital editions and once every two seasons, and articles are accepted in Persian and English and they are reviewed.